OLYMPIA VETERANS QUALIFIER FOR SCOTTISH HORSE SHOW

The Scottish Horse Show committee today (15 November) announced that the 2012 show is now a regional qualifier for the Veteran Horse Showing's championships at Olympia in 2012. These qualifying classes take place on the first day of competition at the Scottish Horse Show, which is taking place at the Ingliston Equestrian Centre near Glasgow, from 28 to 29 August 2012.

Having the difficult task of choosing the best animal to qualify for Olympia next year rests with Dawn Christie from Leicestershire and Kath Wilson from County Durham. Speaking today about this latest announcement show Chairman, Tweetie Nimmo said, "Veteran horse and pony classes are gaining in popularity all over the UK and we are especially delighted and proud that the committee of Veteran Horse Showing chose us to host this important regional final. We have made time within our busy schedule on day one to ensure the championship of the veteran classes will take place during the evening performance."

Mrs Nimmo also confirmed that the Scottish Horse Show has retained all its existing Horse of the Year Show qualifying classes. She added, "We are delighted that the Horse of the Year Show organising committee has awarded us all our existing qualifiers for ponies and horses. We are naturally disappointed that we failed to secure either the Maxi Cob or Welsh ridden qualifiers but shall continue running classes for these exhibitors to ensure we have something for everyone at next year's show."
